

Opening doors to college opportunities for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities

ACT CONFERENCE SPEAKER PROPOSAL

FEBRUARY 25, 2017 REGIONAL CONFERENCE

OPEN TO PARENTS, STUDENTS, EDUCATORS, AND PROFESSIONALS ACROSS TEXAS

The Access College Texas Conference is an excellent opportunity to learn about ways Texas individuals and organizations open doors to college opportunities to adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Topics include transitioning from high school, transition to the workforce, best practices, college preparation, as well as existing programs and services. Parents and student past and present who would like to share their experiences with future college bound families are encouraged to submit proposals.

We welcome businesses, nonprofits, agencies, existing college programs, educators, students, professionals and parents to submit speaker proposals.
